UTR6.74 - W.E.J. CRAIG TRAVELLING SCHOLARSHIP

Recitals-

A. The sum of £6,000 was presented to the University by a donor who wished to remain anonymous for the purpose of founding the W.E.J. Craig travelling scholarship to be held preferably at Queen's University Belfast for research in the subject of Animal Husbandry.

B. The donor agreed that the scholarship should be awarded by the Council whenever in its opinion sufficient income has accumulated to enable the purposes of the gift to be satisfactorily fulfilled.

C. The sum of £6,000 increased to $62,000 at 31 December 1994.

It is provided as follows-

1. The sum of $62,000 and any additions and accumulations to the sum forms a fund called the ‘W.E.J. Craig Travelling Scholarship’ (‘the fund’) and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and shall remain there until the Council directs otherwise.

2. The scholarship is awarded whenever the Council determines that sufficient income has accumulated to enable the objects of the founder to be satisfactorily fulfilled. The scholarship may be awarded for one, two or three years and the amount on each occasion of its award is determined by the Council, having regard to the accumulated net income.

3. The scholarship is open to competition among graduates of the University qualified to pursue research in Animal Husbandry.

4. The scholarship is awarded by the Council on the recommendation of the Postgraduate Scholarships Committee (‘the committee’).

5. The scholar must pursue a course of study or research relating to Animal Husbandry at an overseas university approved by the committee but preference will be given to a student undertaking such course of study or research, in whole or in part, at Queen's University, Belfast.

6. The scholarship is paid in advance in quarterly instalments-

Provided that the scholar's tenure may be terminated at any time if he or she is not making progress considered satisfactory by the committee.
