Recitals-
A. Family, partner Barbara Jennings, partners at Holding Redlich, trade unions and friends of the late Tom Zucker donated to the University the sum of $37,254 to establish a fund to endow the Tom Zucker Scholarship in Labour Law in his memory.

B. Tom Zucker, who specialised in labour law, was a partner with the legal firm Holding Redlich at the time of his untimely death in 1990.

C. The scholarship is open for award to students enrolled in the course for the graduate diploma in Labour Relations Law who are employed by, or who are officials of, an Australian trade union or peak union organisation.

D. The University received $37,254 at the time of the donation, which sum increased to $73,566.71 with an accumulated income of $34,995.31 at 3 August 2004.

E. From 2008 the faculty of Law became a graduate school established as a faculty known as Melbourne Law School.

It is provided as follows-
1. The sum of the fund and any accumulations and additions to the fund is to form a fund called ‘The Tom Zucker Scholarship in Labour Law Fund’ (‘fund’) which must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until Council directs otherwise.

2. The net annual income of the fund is to provide ‘The Tom Zucker Scholarship in Labour Relations’ (‘scholarship’). The scholarship is to be awarded by Council on the recommendation of the dean of Melbourne Law School (‘dean’).

3. The scholarship is to be awarded annually to a student enrolled in the course for either the graduate diploma in Labour Relations Law or the masters degree in Labour Relations Law. In making any such recommendation, the dean may consider the applicant’s academic ability and demonstrated financial need and preference will be given to applicants who are employed by, or who are officials of, an Australian trade union or peak union organisation.

4. The scholarship is to be awarded for a term of one year and has the value of the net annual income of the fund.

5. If at any time, and for whatever reason, it becomes impracticable or impossible to carry out the purposes for which the fund is established, then Council may apply the income of the fund and, where necessary, the capital, for such other purposes as are, in its opinion, most closely in accordance with the original purposes.

[Title am, Recital D subst., ss. 1-4 subst., s.5 deleted, s.6 renumbered s.5, 6/10/04; recital E added s 2 & 3 am 16/3/09; revoked as a Regulation and certified as a University trust record 26/5/10]