Recitals-

A. Dr Eleanor Sabina Wertheim, Senior Research Fellow, formerly of 94 Leopold Street, South Yarra, in the State of Victoria who died on 23 November 2000 bequeathed to the University one third of the residue of her estate:

"I GIVE AND BEQUEATH one third part or share thereof to the UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE to establish a Trust Fund for the creation of a Scholarship to be known as "Eleanor and Joseph Wertheim Scholarship" for unmarried, widowed or divorced women over the age of 25 years in difficult circumstances to assist them to pursue undergraduate or graduate courses in the said University. If in any year sufficient funds are available as a result of the investment of the bequest as hereinafter provided then in the discretion of the Trustees of the Fund more than one scholarship can be awarded."

B. On 21 November 2002 the Supreme Court of Victoria made an Order substituting the Council of the University as Trustee of the Eleanor and Joseph Wertheim Scholarship Trust for the trustees prescribed in the will.

C. The testatrix graduated BA (1952) PhD (1972) (Melb) and her husband Joseph Wertheim who died on 25 July 1997 graduated BSc (1935) MSc (1936) (Melb).

D. The University has received $1,147,126.40 in satisfaction of the bequest.

It is provided as follows-

1. The sum of $1,147,126.40 and any accumulations and additions to the sum form a fund to be called “The Eleanor and Joseph Wertheim Scholarship Trust” (“the fund”) and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until Council directs otherwise.

2. The net annual income of the fund is to be applied towards providing in perpetuity the “Eleanor and Joseph Wertheim Scholarship” (“the scholarship”) provided that if in any year sufficient income is available more than one scholarship may be awarded.

3. The scholarship is to be awarded in each case to an unmarried, widowed or divorced woman over the age of 25 years in difficult circumstances enrolled in an undergraduate or postgraduate course.

4. Subject to satisfactory academic performance the scholarship is for the prescribed term of the degree for which the recipient is enrolled.

5. The scholarship is awarded by Council on the joint recommendation of the manager Undergraduate Scholarships and the manager Postgraduate Scholarships (“the managers”) in the Melbourne Scholarships Office.

6. The scholarship is of such value as Council on the recommendation of the managers may on each occasion determine.
