UTR6.121 - WILLIAM HENRY LORD BURSARIES

Recitals-

A. Rosamond May Lord, formerly of 21 Pakington Street, Kew, who died on 8 September 1962, bequeathed to the University the sum of £2,000 for the purpose of providing a bursary or bursaries in connection with the school of Agriculture in memory of her late husband William Henry Lord.

B. The School of Agriculture is now known as the Institute of Land and Food Resources.

C. The University received the sum of £2,000 in satisfaction of the bequest, which sum increased to $6,229 at 31 December 1994.

It is provided as follows-

1. The sum of $6,229 and any accumulations and additions to the sum forms a fund called the ‘William Henry Lord Bursaries’ (‘the fund’) and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until the Council directs otherwise.

2. The net annual income of the fund is divided into two equal parts and is used to provide the bursaries.

3. The bursary or bursaries may be awarded annually by the Council on the recommendation of the Students Loan Fund and Bursaries Committee (‘the committee’) to students enrolled in the Institute of Land and Food Resources.

4. The ordinary tenure of the bursaries is one year but the Council may, where the committee so recommends, extend the tenure in individual cases for a further period not exceeding one year.
