Recitals-

A. Katherine Janeba, late of Kangaroo Ground, Warrandyte, who died on 13 March 1985, bequeathed the whole of her residuary estate to the University to endow "The Fritz Janeba Travelling Scholarship" in memory of her late husband, Professor Frederick Alois "Fritz" Janeba, a member of the University's faculty of Architecture, Planning and Building from 1949 to 1964.

B. Mrs Janeba's will contains certain directions which have been given effect in the University trust record which follows which has been approved by the trustee of the estate.

C. The University received the sum of $112,024 in satisfaction of the bequest, which sum increased to $130,024 at 31 December 1994.

It is provided as follows-

1. The sum of $130,024 and any accumulations and additions to the sum forms a fund called the "The Fritz Janeba Travelling Scholarship Fund" ("the fund") and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until the Council directs otherwise.

2. The net annual income of the fund is applied by the Council, on the recommendation of a committee established in the last succeeding section, to the award of a scholarship called "The Fritz Janeba Travelling Scholarship" ("the scholarship"), the award to be made as close as possible to 13 March in any year.

3. (1) Candidates for the scholarship must be persons on whom the degree of Bachelor of Architecture has been conferred by the University, or who are entitled to have such degree conferred by the University, who are undertaking a course for a higher degree of the University in the faculty of Architecture, Planning and Building provided their special field of study is Design.

   (2) The scholarship, which has a tenure of one year, must be used by scholars to assist them to pursue their studies in Design at overseas universities or other academic institutions approved by the Council for the purpose, and candidates are required to submit to the committee administering the award of the scholarship written advice that, if they are granted the scholarship, the overseas university or universities or other academic institutions in which they propose to pursue their scholarship, will accept their visit.

   (3) To enable scholars to pursue their studies in accordance with sub-section (2) they must apply for and be granted leave of absence from their course for a minimum period of one semester or its equivalent time in consecutive weeks.

4. The amount to be awarded to the recipient of the scholarship in any year must be determined by the committee in its absolute discretion, and where in any year two candidates are considered to be of equal merit the committee may defer the award of the scholarship to one of those candidates until the next succeeding year.

5. In selecting a scholar a candidate's age or sex must not be taken into consideration but the committee must take into consideration not only the candidate's academic results but also the candidate's innovative approach to architecture.

6. A committee to administer the scholarship is hereby established and comprises-

(a) a professor of Architecture, appointed by Council, as chairperson;

(b) the senior lecturers in the subject "Design" or its equivalent from time to time; and

(c) the senior partner in the firm Price Brent, solicitors, or its successor, if any, from time to time.

[s.3 subst. 8/4/91; revoked as a Regulation and certified as a University trust record 26/5/10]