Recitals-

A. The University's Asialink Centre convened a group of eminent Australians as an advisory committee, chaired by Sir Ninian Stephen, to raise funds by way of appeal to establish a perpetual fund to commemorate the late Sir Edward "Weary" Dunlop. The appeal was launched by the Prime Minister, Mr Paul Keating, as he delivered the second lecture in the Asialink Lecture Series on 8 December 1993. Asialink is to administer the awards which will include fellowships, a memorial lecture and an annual medal.

B. To give effect to the conditions which have been agreed between the University and the advisory committee the following University trust record is proposed.

C. The University received the sum of $50,000 as a first donation to the appeal.

It is provided as follows-

1. The sum of $50,000 and any accumulations and additions to the sum forms a fund called "The Sir Edward "Weary" Dunlop Asia Awards Fund" ("the fund") and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until the Council directs otherwise.

2. The net annual income of the fund is to be applied by the Council, on the recommendation of the University's Asialink Centre ("Asialink"), to the awarding of fellowships to be called "The Sir Edward "Weary" Dunlop Asia Fellowships" ("the fellowships"), to the presentation of "The Sir Edward "Weary" Dunlop Asialink Lecture" ("the lecture") and to the awarding of "The Sir Edward "Weary" Dunlop Medal" ("the medal") for the purpose of fostering meaningful and constructive relationships between Australia and the countries of Asia.

3. The terms and conditions applicable to the award of the fellowships and of the medal and to the presentation of the lecture are to be determined from time to time by the Council on the recommendation of Asialink.

4. All costs of, and incidental to, selecting the fellows, presenting the lecture and awarding the medal are to be met from the net annual income of the fund and all necessary administration of the three purposes for which the fund is established is to be undertaken by Asialink.
