4. Terms of Reference

4.1 To advise the Academic Board on quality assurance policy and processes for teaching and learning in undergraduate and postgraduate award courses and subjects. As part of its responsibilities, and within the framework of Growing Esteem and the University’s Teaching and Learning Plan, TALQAC has particular responsibilities in relation to quality assurance of award courses (including course structure and coherence), assessment and examination policies, processes for course management, learning support, student progress and student transition into courses and careers.
4.2 In collaboration with Faculties, Graduate Schools, related Academic Board committees, the Centre for the Study of Higher Education and the University Planning Office, to develop appropriate qualitative and quantitative measures of performance of teaching and learning, taking into account national and international recommended practices, including the quality framework of the Australian Universities Quality Agency (AUQA), and to oversee, monitor and review their use.

4.3 To advise the Provost and Academic Board on priority areas for evaluation and quality assurance of academic programs and associated student support programs, and to recommend the academic units and areas of teaching and learning that are scheduled for the next annual cycle of evaluations.

4.4 To review and evaluate quality in teaching and learning of all award courses and associated student support services and programs, and to make recommendations to the Academic Board and through the Board to Council, on appropriate actions to improve the quality of teaching and learning in those courses and programs.

4.5 To advise and make recommendations to the Academic Board on the plans of Course Standing Committees, Faculties and Graduate Schools to modify the structure, content, method of presentation and delivery of award courses in response to quality assessments received in the previous year in order to ensure that these programs are of the highest possible quality.

4.6 To evaluate systems and structures for the effective interaction between Faculties, Graduate Schools, the School of Graduate Research, Research and Research Training Committee, relevant Academic Board committees, associated administrative supporting services and the University Planning Office in the development and use of measures to encourage adoption of good practice in academic programs.

4.7 To advise and liaise with the Provost, Director of the Centre for the Study of Higher Education, Deans, Course Standing Committee Chairs, related Academic Board committees, and associated student and administrative supporting programs and services on matters within its purview, particularly in the use and efficacy of LMS and other educational innovations.

4.8 To monitor the quality and effectiveness of programs designed to facilitate the transition of students into undergraduate and postgraduate courses and from courses into careers.

5. Reporting

The Teaching and Learning Quality Assurance Committee will report to Academic Board after each meeting.
