B. Dorothy Hill, on 4 May 1973, presented to the University the sum of $2,000 for the purpose of founding a scholarship to be known as “the Allan Scholarship” in memory of Viola Allan for the encouragement of the study of the piano.

C. The faculty of the Victorian College of the Arts and the faculty of Music were amalgamated with effect from 6 April 2009 to form one faculty called the faculty of the VCA and Music. Separate schools have been established within the faculty of the VCA and Music for each discipline offered by the faculty, one being the school of Music.

D. The school of Music within the faculty of the VCA and Music offers the higher education award courses and degrees previously offered by the former faculty of Music within its school of Music and by the faculty of the Victorian College of the Arts (as then known) within its discipline of Music.

It is provided as follows -

1. The sum of $2,000 and any accumulations and additions to the sum forms a fund called the "Allan Scholarship Fund" ("fund") and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until Council directs otherwise.

2. Council has an absolute discretion in the investment of the fund and may add to the sum from time to time from any other sources as Council in its absolute discretion deems appropriate.

3. The scholarship is awarded to a student who is qualified to pursue the course for the degree of bachelor of Music and who is pursuing or desires to pursue piano studies.

4. The dean of the faculty of the VCA and Music (‘faculty’) on the recommendation of the head of the school of Music in the faculty is authorised to award the scholarship on behalf of the University.

5. Preference is to be given to eligible students whose permanent home is within a radius of 50 miles from the township of Horsham in the State of Victoria.

6. The scholarship is open for award from time to time whenever the net annual income of the fund is deemed sufficient by the dean of the faculty (‘dean’).

7. The value of the scholarship is such sum as the dean from time to time determines.
8. The tenure of the scholarship is one year but the dean on the recommendation of the head of the school of Music may in particular cases extend such tenure by a further period not exceeding one year.

9. If at any time the dean on the recommendation of the head of the school of Music is of the opinion that the scholar is not pursuing his or her work satisfactorily, the scholarship may be terminated.
